Cemetery Benefit.

The entertainment given last Friday night by home talent for the benefit of the cemetery association was witnessed by a crowded house and was a great success.

Two plays were rendered, a farce in English, called "Betsey Baker" and one in German, entitled "Elner Muss Heiraten." In the former Messrs. Peck Welhausen and Edwin Wolters and Mrs. S. A. Thulemeyer and Miss Meta Holchak gave their several parts as they usually do, well nigh perfect. In the German play Messrs. Messer and Lichev acted the parts of two brothers who were forced to marry against their will and they both gave excellent performances and provoked much laughter. Mrs. A. Messer gave an excellent performance of Gertrude, the aunt of the two brothers. Miss Edna Holchak as Luise, looked and acted her part well.

Mr. Messer gave two comic songs, and as usual, brought down the house. Mr. Perry Wendt, land also sang a song that was highly pleasing. Little Louise Thulemeyer gave a sweet little song that was quite a surprise for one so young. Little Louise will some day bud out into a fine vocalist. The music was under the direction of Mr. S. A. Thulemeyer and was very fine. The gross receipts of the entertainment amounted to $134.00.
